

Luh Kiera Seneng
Fresno, CA

Email: kieraseneng@gmail.com
Phone: (559) 396-6353

Objective

Web Application Development internship

Education

Center for Advanced Research and Technology (CART)

Web Application Development Lab (Aug. 2020-present)

- Collaborated with a team to design and publish a website
- Worked with photoshop
- Used Figma to design prototypes of web applications
- Used mood boards to plan out the feeling of the website

Cybersecurity Lab (Aug. 2019-June 2020)

- Analyzed current Cybersecurity trends
- Educated in basic security needs, common problems and solutions
- Practiced problem solving skills with puzzles, sometimes involving themes of cybersecurity (Using CyberStart America, and Digital Breakout)
- Knowledge of Data Management and collaboration software such as Google forms or Microsoft Excel
- Designed an infographic to educate people about Network Security certifications
- Collaborated with others to research current Cybersecurity problems
- Completed IT fundamentals
- Examined how data sheets are constructed and showed their uses
- Educated in operating systems, applications software, software development, computer hardware, and network

Fresno High School (Aug. 2019-present)

- College prep courses (Expected graduation 2022)

Fresno City College

TA-30 Theater Appreciation (for half a semester)

- Educated in the history of theater and effect on modern theater
- Rehearse a scene from plays, a monolog

Design Science middle college high school

- Investigated a controversial topic about gun control for a debate paper

Coding

- HTML
- CSS
- JavaScript